WHAT SHOULD THE OFFICER DO?

Editor Commonwealth:

E is watching F's hunting preserves to keep all but members hunting in closed season. E catches B on F's property. E reports the catch to F and F swears out a warrant for B, hands it to the officer and asks him to have B in court at 3:30 Saturday. The officer was out of town Friday and Saturday on business and did not bring B in court. This infuriated F so he proceeds to lay the officer out to his friends, saying he should be put out of office for not serving the warrant as F wanted it done.

The officer saw F on the day the first trial was set, and had F to fix another date for the trial, which he set for Friday of the next week. The officer saw B the following Monday before the trial to take place on Friday and served the warrant on B and told him to be here Friday for trial at 3 o'clock. B remarks to the officer that E had six squirrels tails hanging out of his pockets at the time of the catch and he was going to indict E for killing squirrels in closed season. B also tells this to F.

F finds the indicting to be a rapidly spreading epidemic and that he, F, is so seriously exposed to it he hurries to the officer and has him to inoculate all warrants to stop the spreading of the dreaded epidemic.

LIFT YOUR CORNS OFF WITH FIN- GERS

Tells how to loosen a tender corn or callus so it lifts out without Pain

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lock jaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn or callus the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, lifts out with the fingers.

Freezone dries the moment it is applied and simply shrivels the corn or callus without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. A small bottle of freezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but will positively rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or hardened callus. If your druggist hasn't any freezone he can get it at any wholesale drug house for you.
